

Mental Health Minnesota Donor Privacy Policy

As a donor submitting personally identifying information (“Personal Information”) to us or any of our staff, you consent to the terms and conditions of the policy and to our processing and use of Personal Information for the purposes stated below.

Personal Information

“Personal Information” is information that identifies you personally, such as your name, address, telephone number, and email address. We collect and store the personally identifiable information that you have provided to us via Mental Health Minnesota’s organizational website, through attendance at an event, or when you otherwise contact us in person, by phone or via email. We also collect your name, email address, telephone number and payment information when you make a contribution, either on our website, at a special event, over the phone or by mailing in a check.

Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

- We do not sell, trade or share donors’ private information with other organizations or third parties.
- We will not send you mailings on behalf of other organizations.
- We will collect payment information, billing address and other information necessary to process a donation or event registration.
- We will use your information to comply with the law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to conform to the requirements of law or comply with legal process served on us.
- We will use the personal information to protect against potential fraud. We may verify with third parties the information collected in the course of processing a gift, event registration or other donation. If you use a credit or debit card on the website, we may use card authorization and fraud screening services to verify that your card information and address matches the information that you supplied to us and that the card being used has not been reported lost or stolen.
- You have the right to review and edit/revise information that we have collected about you. To review that information please contact us in writing.
- Donors may opt out of making their private information publicly available or shared.

Except as described in this Privacy Policy or at the time we request the information, we do not otherwise disclose your personal information to any third parties.